

A PARTNERSHIP with clients

Chris Russell

The partners and staff of LLF LAWYERS are pleased to announce Chris Russell, BCom (Hons), LL.B., has joined our firm.

A graduate of the University of Victoria, Chris began practicing commercial litigation in Vancouver in 1997. Now living in Peterborough and admitted to the Bar of Ontario, Chris will lead the commercial litigation practice of LLF, providing advocacy and dispute resolution counsel to the business and professional practice sectors of the firm. Employment, labour relations and construction matters will be areas of concentration in Chris' practice. In addition, his extensive background in technology will complement the intellectual property services of LLF.
