

A PARTNER

LLF LAWYERS is pleased to announce the admission to partnership of TAMMY WILLIAMS. Tammy joined the firm as an associate in 2004, and since that time she has become an integral member of the litigation and dispute resolution practice.

"We are very pleased to make this announcement. Tammy makes a significant contribution to the success of our firm and that of our clients." noted partner Bill Lockington.

Tammy is a graduate of Trent University (B.A.), and received her Juris Doctor from the Faculty of Law of University of Toronto in 2003. Her practice concentrates in the litigation areas of family and domestic law, employment matters and general commercial issues. Currently serving as the President of the Peterborough Law Association, Tammy is also an executive Board Member of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Peterborough and a Board member of the United Way of Peterborough District.

LLF LAWYERS is a full service legal firm serving owner-managed and family business, professionals and individual clients throughout Central Ontario. Responding to the needs and interests of an expanding clientele, the lawyers of the firm provide specific counsel and advocacy in matters of property, business, dispute resolution, estate planning and administration. LLF LAWYERS is proud of its newest partner.

332 Aylmer St. N., P.O. Box 1146, Peterborough, ON K9J 7H4 Fax: 705.742.4677

LLF Lawyers LLP continues the practices of Ross Whittington, Lech, Lightbody & O'Brien, Frank G. Steffler and John Corkery.

LAWYERS

705.742.1674

www.llf.ca