Whether our clients are individuals or businesses, our goal is the same: to partner with them to provide personalized service, creative legal thinking, and cost effective solutions. It is the dedication and pride in client service that enables our firm to form solid and lasting relationships as trusted advisors.

We are active in our community, participating in service and charitable organizations while remaining informed and knowledgeable on local issues, to bring a sensitive approach to the specific needs of our clients.

With an enviable reputation for our work with not-for-profit, charitable and institutional organizations, we are frequently called upon to advise on matters of process, governance, and administration.

We also represent numerous public and private foundations ensuring their currency with evolving regulatory legislation.

Legal issues exhibit many facets, each requiring consideration and experienced judgement. Recognizing this, we conduct our practice as a co-operative team; ensuring clients have timely access to the resources of all our lawyers. We also work closely with a network of financial and business professionals to offer clients an extended team of trusted advisors.
